XLVII CONGRESS.

REGULAR SESSION.

HOUSE.

Washington, 3.—Bills were introduced and referred by Berry to abolish the state of Nevada and attach it to the state of California.

By Robinson, a resolution of inquiry. It recites the constitutional provisions which prohibit any senator or representative being questioned for any remarks spoken in debate; states that on the 20th of January, 1882, Lionel Sackville West, accredited minister of the British monarchy in this city, called upon Secretary Frelinghuysen, and questioned remarks delivered in the House the day before by Robinson, and expressed his disapproval of the resolution of the committee on foreign affairs, and closes with the following resolution:

Resolved, That the secretary of state is directed to inform this House, without reference to its incompatibility with public interest, whether said British minister suggested any punishment for those who had spoken in the debate of January 24th, without his leave; whether he suggested the appointment of a British censor, to revise before publication the speeches delivered in the House and Senate; whether he suggested a person be appointed to administer soothing syrup to the British lion when disturbed by the eagle's wing; whether he suggested official recognition of the New York Tribune, founded by Horace Greeley, amend of the Irish Directory of 1848, as the British organ in the United States, in manifest injustice to the equal claim of the Times, and whether said British minister suggested that as we had saluted the British flag at Yorktown he thought we had permanently pulled down ours, together with as full a report as possible of the conversation which passed between said minister and the secretary of state on the 25th of January, 1882.

The Senate bill passed for a public building at Terre Haute, Ind., River was agreed to. Hancock, from the appropriation committee, reported a substitute for the sundry civil appropriation bill, and gave notice that he would ask to have it taken up as soon as the naval appropriation was disposed of. Adjourned till Wednesday.

Making More Scandal.
Washington, 3.—Christianity and his young wife, from whom he was shortly divorced, met at her home under circumstances that created the report of a complete, loving and beautiful reconciliation. It seems the old man was walking down Indiana avenue, and passing his wife's apartment, he glanced at the windows, and she beckoned vigorously for her husband to enter. The senator paused, hesitated a moment, glanced at the time, and at the plump pretty person of his wife, who, with smiles on her face, waived a paper in her hand to attract his attention, and he entered. As soon as the door opened Mrs. Christianity dropped the paper, and, with a loving gesture, attempted to draw her husband in the parlor. The old man gathered himself together just in time, coldly put his wife away, exchanged a few words with her and departed. The entire proceedings were visible throughout the open door, and led to the rumor that the Christianity suit would be withdrawn.

Another Crank.
With a Mission to Avenge Guitau's Death.
Erie, Pa., 2.—A strange crank passed through here to-day who professed to be on a divine mission to Washington to execute a command of God by avenging Guitau's murder, as he termed it. He resembles Guitau in personal appearance, and professes to be a distant relative. He says he had never taken much stock in Guitau until the night before he was hanged, when God appeared to him in a vision and commanded him to go to Washington to avenge Guitau's murder. As to the manner in which this is to be effected he is in doubt, as God promised to reveal it to him upon his arrival in Washington. He refused to tell his name and where he came from, but he had a ticket from Chicago to New York. He uttered terrible threats against Arthur and others.

Foreign.

Simla, 3.—The rebellion in Muscat against the Amaxa movement is headed by the Amaxa's brother. A British man-of-war has gone to Muscat to protect the British subjects.
Tunis, 3.—At the grand exercises yesterday, commemorative of Garibaldi, the Italian and English consuls, the French minister and representatives of the Bey attended.
Berlin, 3.—Schols succeeds Butler as minister of finances. A number of leading manufacturers met at Cologne and adopted resolutions declaring the bimetallic agitation was economically injurious affecting the economic interest. The country and government should express a determination to not carry anti-gold currency without due haste.

The Turf.

Chicago, 3.—The promise of good weather and track to-day was not fulfilled. The rain fell last night and early this morning, making the track quite heavy. Just before the first race started; this afternoon, a drizzling rain set in and increased to a downpour before the second was run, making the track deep in mud and compelling a postponement of the day's programme at the conclusion of the second race.

For the first event, the nursery stake, one mile dash, "Lucky Baldwin" was the favorite in the pools. He got away badly, and the effort to make up the lost ground and force his pace over such a heavy track was too much for him, and "Ascender," who ran three quarters of a mile, came with a rush in the last furlong and won, "Lucky B." dropping to the third place. With a good track he would give the Kentucky crack a very lively race for this distance.

In the two mile heats "Clara D." had everything her own way throughout, and winning at will, under a strong pull in straight heats. She demonstrated that she is a good mud horse, as at the conclusion of each heat she scarcely took a long breath, while the others were dead tired.

Chicago, 3.—Two mile heats, all ages; pools, "Clara D." 100, field 25. A drizzling rain began to fall about the time the first race began, and it now seemed very sloppy. "Clara D." went away to the lead from the drum trap and was never headed, winning by three lengths; "Isco" second, ten lengths ahead of "Windrush." "Dedette" was distanced. Time 4:03 1/2.

Second heat—Pools, "Clara D." 100, field 10. The favorite again led, running the entire distance, winning in a gallop by half a dozen lengths; "Isco" second. Time 4:11.

The Autopsy.

Washington, 3.—Most of the surgeons were present at the meeting. They compared notes and a report, which will be written by Dr. Lamb, was agreed upon. There is good authority for stating that the conclusions were foreshadowed by the Associated Press dispatches last week. The report will embody many photographs and elaborate microscopic analysis. Rev. Dr. Hicks, who authorized the autopsy, was in consultation to-day with Dr. Lamb, who read to him the report as far as completed. John W. Guitau left last evening for Boston.

Fireworks Given Away.

Mr. James Dwyer advertises that he will give fire crackers away—that is, he will sell them so low that it will amount to their being given away. Last night he had some 1,400 pounds of fireworks arrive, long overdue, but delayed because of the strikes east, and as they have got to be sold to-day, every person can have a grand display of his own, at a very reasonable cost. Just call at his store, which will be open all day, and see them.

Those whose vocation it is to preach, lecture, declaim or sing, will and do find HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR the speediest restorative of the voice in cases of hoarseness. Also, that it cures coughs and sore throat rapidly and completely. Consequently it is immensely popular with the above class. Sold by all druggists.

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

FROM Professor A. ## Splitting the Cent.

NAPHI, UTAH, July 2d, 1882.

Editors Herald:

I have in my possession the half of an old copper cent, of the date of 1831, which has the following history as given to the writer by Mr. Joseph C. Stickney of Santaquin, Utah County, this territory. Mr. Stickney says that in the summer of 1844, he had some dealings with a merchant in North Easton, New Hampshire, and in settling with the merchant, he would always bring the half cent in favor of himself, the merchant, and Mr. Stickney told the merchant that he thought it would only be fair for him to have the half cent part of the time. The old Yankee merchant could not see that and taking an old-fashioned copper cent, cut it in two in the center, keeping one half and giving the other half to Mr. Stickney. This was in the summer of 1844, and Mr. Stickney has kept it ever since as a memento of Yankee shrewdness.

"Blow for Blow."

Predictions to the contrary notwithstanding, there was a very good-sized audience at the Theatre last night to witness the performance of "Blow for Blow," the last production by the Home Dramatic Club. The piece itself is of the old standard character, but is not such as would generally be esteemed today. However, it has decided merits, such as a good plot, with generally good opportunities for acting, with some fine situations, and an excellent dialogue. It has also the pleasing admixture of comedy in it, more than sufficient to relieve the serious nature of the piece. The object of attraction was Miss Ada Dwyer, the debutante of the evening, when she appeared in the leading, a semi-dual role. The debut was in every way satisfactory, and considering the difficulties attending such an occurrence, especially as the young lady appreciated that—indeed of herself—the interest of the evening would mainly centre in her character, her rendering of the part was more than her friends had expected. In her advantage scenes she appeared to best advantage, doubtless because they best suited her taste, but partly because she had given greatest attention to them. Her business was done with much care, and her conception was very perfect. Her elocutionary training was most valuable acquisition, and the applause she received was most well merited. The young lady should be satisfied with the result; and in the language of a gentleman thirty-five years in the theatrical business: "She has dramatic ability which is clearly defined, and it will make her noted in time and after study and practice." Mr. Cummings has almost entirely overcome the difficulty first noticed in him about his voice, but if he would talk a little louder it would be much better for him and more pleasant to the audience. He appeared with his usual care and played with characteristic smoothness. Mr. Wells, in his part, was entirely new, but not less humorous than in other characters where he has been altogether different. Mr. Spencer was every inch a villain; in this and the comedy line the young gentleman shows best; Mr. D. C. Dunbar has never made such a hit as last night, in make up and acting he was superb; Mr. French made his debut, and he appeared more like an old stager than an amateur; Mr. Charles Whitney was equally good, and Messrs. Wilton and Horsley were careful and good as usual. Miss Birdie Clawson is fast developing into a fine actress. She appears to in infinitely greater advantage each time and is indisputably possessed of the dramatic ability which is a characteristic of her family. Miss Lottie Claridge is always a favorite, and was doubly so last evening, while Miss Ella Dunbar, who appeared for the second time, is a young lady of most promising ability, and who acquitted herself with surprise to her friends and the public at large.

The whole performance, so far as acting and humor was concerned, was a success, and its repetition this afternoon will doubtless bring out a large audience.

It is needless to state that the Careless orchestra played well—as that is proverbial of its performances.
